

Our Members Say...

"During my time in PRSSA, I wrote for the newsletter, helped out at fundraising events and served on the Executive Board as treasurer during my senior year. When I interviewed for my first real job after graduation, the interviewer was so impressed by my involvement in PRSSA. Having a nationally recognized organization like PRSSA on your resume definitely gives you a leg up over the competition. I got the job!"

-Samantha Harris
2008 Graduate

"I'm only a sophomore, but I've already made so many invaluable connections with PR professionals through the different guest speakers each week. A little networking, even at a PRSSA meeting, can go a long way. I even got an internship through one of the guest speakers that spoke last semester!"

What is PRSSA?

PRSSA members taking a tour of Comcast Spectacor in Philadelphia.

The Public Relations Student Society of America (PRSSA) is a pre-professional organization for communications students who want to learn more about the public relations field, network with professionals and apply knowledge from the classroom to a real world setting.

Throughout the semester, members get the opportunity to listen to PR professionals address the organization.

To get even more involved, members of PRSSA are invited to serve on one of four different committees.

Committees

Fundraising

Think event planning is your thing? The fundraising committee plans and executes several events each semester. Past events include comedy shows, networking events, spoken word poetry shows and bake sales.

Public Relations

As the premier public relations organization on campus, we offer our services to other student organizations. The public relations committee works with student clients to promote their events on campus.

Newsletter

Want to build your portfolio? The newsletter committee produces two newsletters a semester giving members the chance to contribute articles.

Community Service

Throughout the year, we participate in community service events like the AIDS Walk and Relay For Life. This committee brainstorms and plans community service activities for our members.

When and Where?

Join us for meetings every Tuesday from 3:30 p.m. until 4:15 p.m. in Room 217 B of the Howard Gittis Student Center.
